

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in regard to Mumuxu Shah and his job application.

I have supervised Mumuxu for 2 months during the YIPI (Youth in Policing Initiative) program at Toronto Police Service. I believe I am in the perfect position to evaluate Mumuxu's strengths and weaknesses, and with those in mind, I can easily recommend him for a position with your company without reservation.

Mumuxu is a highly intelligent student, and is able to apply his knowledge in the workplace setting, as well as in his daily life. In addition, Mumuxu is thoughtful and kind toward others, and is very much liked by his peers and management during his time with us. Some applicants with Mumuxu's intellectual capability tend to be introverts, but Mumuxu is just the opposite. He engages others and actively seeks social interaction, knowledge and solutions while at the same time maintaining his professional workload.

You will have no regrets in accepting Mumuxu to your workforce. I am happy to give you more information about the assets that Mumuxu possesses, so please do not hesitate to contact me with any further questions.

Sincerely,
